

Wellington, FL – February 23, 2026 – Palms Wellington Surgical Center has been informed of the arrest of a former nurse in connection with allegations involving patients.

The individual's employment was immediately terminated upon an internal investigation into the allegations, and the matter was promptly reported to the appropriate authorities. We are fully cooperating with law enforcement in their investigation.

The safety, dignity, and well-being of our patients are our highest priorities. We have zero tolerance for misconduct of any kind. Our organization maintains strict hiring, supervision, and compliance standards, and we are conducting an internal review to determine whether any additional safeguards are warranted.

Because this is an active investigation, we are unable to provide further details at this time. Out of respect for patient privacy, we will not comment on any individual patient matters.

Anyone with relevant information is encouraged to contact the Palm Beach Sheriff's Office directly.
